

Michael Stone

650 Maple Street • Chicago, IL 60025 • (708) 356-6425 • michael.stone@snc.edu

OBJECTIVE To obtain a teaching position in an elementary or middle school classroom.

EDUCATION St. Norbert College, De Pere, Wisconsin
Bachelor of Arts Degree in Elementary Education, May 2007
Minor: Mathematics Education
Certification: Middle Childhood – Early Adolescence
Completed Virtus Training

Lancaster University, Lancaster, England, Fall 2005

- Study abroad program with coursework in variety of subjects, including a course in mathematics education.
- Traveled extensively in Europe and the British Isles.
- Gained an appreciation for a global point of view.
- Established openness to new ideas and practices.
- Became sensitive to other cultural values, norms, customs, and communication patterns.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Student Teacher, Webster Elementary School, Green Bay, Wisconsin, April 2007-June 2007

Student Teacher, St. John the Baptist School, Howard-Suamico, Wisconsin, January 2007-March 2007

- Created math lessons based on the school's curriculum.
- Incorporated technology and hands on activities to encourage student learning.
- Chaperoned students at several class field trips and school assemblies.
- Assisted in developing curriculum for remainder of the year based on solid math background and school standards.
- Assisted in choosing middle school math books to purchase for the next year.
- Sat in on several IEP meetings and gave input when applicable and appropriate.
- Utilized flexibility to adjust to any and all scheduled and unscheduled events.

Pre-service Teacher, Baird Elementary School, Green Bay, Wisconsin, April 2005-May 2005

- Assisted in the organization of events for Health Day.
- Taught all subjects for a two to three week period.
- Created interactive lessons to engage all students in the dynamic 2nd and 3rd grade combined classroom.

Pre-service Teacher, Westwood Elementary School, DePere, Wisconsin, February 2005-April 2005

- Guided students through activities about measurement.
- Used cross-curricular learning such as incorporating reading in a math class.

Pre-service Teacher, Washington Middle School, Green Bay Wisconsin, February 2005-April 2005

- Created interactive Social studies lessons about World War I and aviation.
- Worked with other pre-service teachers to teach a small group of middle school students about World War I.
- Utilized technology to support student learning and subject enthusiasm.

CAREER-RELATED EXPERIENCE

Mathematics Tutor, St. Norbert College, De Pere, Wisconsin, August-December 2006

- Tutored Pre-Calculus and Calculus students from St. Norbert College.
- Identified students' trouble spots and incorporated techniques to address those trouble spots.
- Taught and explained difficult concepts.
- Came up with solutions to aide in students' academic success.

Glenview Park District Employee, Glenview, Illinois, June 2000-Present

Camp Director - June 2003-Present

- Plan daily activities for the 7 week summer camp.
- Manage Camp Counselors, Counselors in Training, and Special Ed Counselors.
- Assist Park District Management in the interviewing and hiring of Camp Counselors.
- Responsible for over 100 children attending camp each summer.
- Worked as Camp Counselor for 3 years previous to Director Position. Camp counselor's basic responsibilities included leading 12 children through daily activities and reporting to parents as to their child's behavior.

LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

President of Phi Beta Delta, St. Norbert College, De Pere, Wisconsin, May 2006-May 2007

- Set up and run bi-monthly meetings for the International Honor Society.
- Work with other executive board members and general members in creating a campus wide familiarity of honor society, its activities and goals.
- Organize chapter functions and activities.
- Report progress and proceedings to faculty advisors as well as current members.

Ambassador for the British Council, St. Norbert College, De Pere, Wisconsin, July 2006-June 2007

- Serve as one of 72 Student Ambassadors in the United States promoting studying in the UK on their respective college campuses.
- Manage, plan, and execute several campus events each semester to highlight studying in the UK.
- Received "Special Recognition" award for sign-ups during the 2006 campus events held at St. Norbert College while promoting the British Council and studying in the UK.

TECHNOLOGY SKILLS

- Microsoft Word, Excel, and PowerPoint
- iMovie
- Inspiration

HONORS/AWARDS

- Presidential Scholarship from St. Norbert College
- Deans List

INTERESTS

- Technology, computers, and reading.

REFERENCES

- References are available upon request.