What can I do with a major in Modern Languages and Literatures?

Overview

St. Norbert College is committed to internationalizing its curriculum and its campus. Foreign language study is a vital part of this endeavor and greatly enhances the college experience for students. Studying a foreign language opens windows on the outside world and creates exciting new educational opportunities, as well as personal enrichment. Knowledge of a foreign language not only is a practical skill in today's ever-changing world but also broadens students' horizons and provides students with the preparation necessary to understand a foreign culture and to succeed in today's globally competitive world.
