ESL Institute:

Come and study on the beautiful campus of Saint Norbert College (2000 students) in the city of De Pere, a suburb of Green Bay, Wisconsin. The ESL program offers non-credit, intensive, English language courses to foreign students who wish to read, write, speak, and understand American English for professional or academic purposes. We offer 4 levels in small classes of 5 – 15 students. Average class size is 10 students. Classes meet 4 hours daily, 20 hours each week.

Special Features:

- Free airport pickup at Green Bay Airport (GRB) only 10 minutes from school
- Orientation to campus and community; language placement test
- Four levels of instruction: Beginning, Elementary, Intermediate, & Advanced
- College dormitory living; usually 2 students in each room (homestay not available)
- Friendship families in the community
- Conversation partners with American students at SNC (not available in summer)
- Free tutors available afternoons
- College resources include: computer labs, sports center, student union, cafeteria, dormitories, health center, clubs & organizations, trips and activities, music practice rooms, and opportunities to do volunteer work in the community,
