

Faculty Development Fund Awards 2005-06

Since June 1, 2005, the following faculty have received Faculty Development Fund awards:

Bonnie McVey, Assistant Professor of Computer Science $500.00

Funding for travel to Houston, TX to participate in the 2006 SIGCSE: Technical Symposium on Computer Science Education, March 1-5, 2006, to present a paper titled "Adding Concentrations to the CS Major: Our Dean Calls Us 'Innovate.'"

David Pankratz, Associate Professor of Computer Science $500.00

Funding for travel to Houston, TX to participate in the 2006 SIGCSE: Technical Symposium on Computer Science Education, March 1-5, 2006, to present a paper titled "Adding Concentrations to the CS Major: Our Dean Calls Us 'Innovate.'"

Jon Russel , Assistant Professor of Chemistry $500.00

Funding for travel to Atlanta, GA to participate in the National Meeting of the American Chemical Society, March 28-30, 2006, to present a paper titled "Chemistry of N-Sulfinylindoles."

John Pennington, Associate Professor of English $500.00

Funding for travel to Fort Lauderdale, FL to participate in the 2006 International Conference on the Fantastic in the Arts, March 15-18, 2006, to present a paper titled "Thoreau's Economy and George MacDonald's Lilith: Walking a Tightrope Between Self-Reliance and Christian Submission."

Jessica Jacobs, Assistant Professor of Art $500.00

Funding for travel to Chicago, IL to participate in the Society for Photographic Education National Conference: A New Pluralism – Photography's Future, March 22-26, 2006, to co-lead a workshop titled "Dossier-Building Workshop."

Michael Lukens, Professor of Religious Studies $500.00

Funding for travel to Berlin, Germany, to participate in the Bonhoeffer Centenary Celebration & Symposium: 100th Anniversary of the Birth of Dietrich Bonhoeffer (1906-1945), February 2-6, 2006, to lecture in the Symposium "Ecumenical-Theological Foundations for Bonhoeffer in the Crisis of National Socialism: Are These Foundations Relevant Today?," and as President of the English Language Section, the largest of the eight sections of the Society, to meet with the leadership of other Society sections for coordination and planning.

Reid Riggle, Associate Professor of Education $500.00

Funding for travel to Portland, OR to participate in the Association for Science Teacher Education 2006 International Conference, January 11-14, 2006, to present a paper titled "Teacher Implementation of a Modular, Data-Based, Internet-Accessible Curriculum" co-authored with Dr. Bruce Munson, University of Minnesota-Duluth.

Robert Kramer, Associate Professor of History$500.00

Funding for travel to the University of Bergen in Norway to participate in the International Sudan Studies Conference, April 5-8, 2006, to present a paper titled "Jewish-Muslims or Muslim-Jews? Negotiated Identity in Sudanese History," and further, on the prestigious personal accomplishment of being invited to lecture at the University of Oslo on the subject of "Women and War in an Islamic Movement."

Ikuko Torimoto, Associate Professor of Japanese $ 500.00

Funding for travel to Honolulu, HI to participate in the 2006 Hawaii International Conference on Arts and Humanities, January 11-14, 2006, to present a paper titled "How Japanese Women Were Portrayed in the Early Years of the Japanese Community on the West Coast (1886-1924)."

Dr. Tom Conner, Professor of French $ 500.00

Funding for travel to Honolulu, HI to participate in the 2006 Hawaii International Conference on Arts and Humanities, January 11-14, 2006, to present a paper titled "Knut Hamsun's (Mis)Reading of Mark Twain's Innocents Abroad" and a second paper titled "The French Rejection of the European Constitution and Its Global Implications."

Dr. John Phythyon, Associate Professor of Biology $ 500.00

Funding for travel to Atlanta, GA to participate in the 105 General Meeting of the American Society for Microbiology, June 5-9, 2005, to present two posters titled "Using Environmental Stressors in Teaching Laboratory Techniques in an Immunology Course" and "Effects of Maternal Exposure to PCBs on Murine Pup Immune System Ability to Produce Antibodies Against Candida albicans" co-authored with Candice Leach (SNC Student).

Dr. Russ Feirer, Associate Professor of Biology $ 500.00

Funding for travel to Baltimore, MD to participate in the Society for In Vitro Biology annual meeting, June 4-8, 2005, to present a poster titled "Control of Arginine Decarboxylase Induction in Arabidopsis thaliana Grown In Vitro" co-authored with Bonnie St. John (SNC Student).

Dr. Anindo Choudhury, Assistant Professor of Biology..... $ 500.00

Funding for travel to Mobile, AL to participate in the 80th annual meeting of the American Society of Parasitologists, July 7-12, 2005, to present a paper titled "Systematic Position of Wallinia Spp. and Margotrema Spp. Parasites of Middle-American and Neotropical Freshwater Fishes Using the 28s Ribosomal RNA Gene," co-authored with G. Pérez-Ponce De León, R. Rosas-Valdez and H. Mejía-Madrid, and three posters titled "Changes in Helminths and Food Habits of Lake Sturgeon, Acipenser fulvescens, from the Lake Winnebago System, WI" co-authored with E. J. Heath, and T. Reed, "Helminth Parasites of the Balsas Catfish Ictalurus balsanus Jordan and Snider, 1900 (Ictaluridae: Siluriformes) in the Balsas River Drainage, Mexico" co-authored with R. Rosas-Valdez, O. Dominguez-Dominguez, and G. Pérez-Ponce De León, and "Molecular and Morphological Evidence for Species Differentiation and Host Specificity within Bothriocephalus cuspidatus (Cestoda)" co-authored with Shane Hoffmann (SNC Student).

Dr. Victoria Tashjian, Associate Professor of History $ 500.00
Funding for travel to Orlando, FL to participate in the National Women's Studies Association 26th Annual Conference, June 8-12, 2005, to present a paper titled "Teaching About Women, Gender and Imperialism: The Use of Travel Writing and Memoirs."

Dr. Deborah Anderson, Associate Professor of Biology $ 500.00
Funding for travel to Halifax, Nova Scotia to participate in the North American Paleontological Convention, June 20-24, 2005, to gather information needed to support a major change in the focus of research.

Dr. Paul Bursik, Associate Professor of Business Administration $ 500.00
Funding for travel to San Francisco, CA to participate in the Western Economics Association Annual Meeting, July 4-8, 2005, to present a paper titled "Stealing Wins and Bases," co-authored with Kevin Quinn and John Dose.

Dr. John Dose, Assistant Professor of Psychology $ 500.00
Funding for travel to San Francisco, CA to participate in the Western Economics Association Annual Meeting, July 4-8, 2005, to present a paper titled "Stealing Wins and Bases," co-authored with Kevin Quinn and Paul Bursik.

Dr. Laurie MacDiarmid, Assistant Professor of English $ 500.00
Funding for travel to Milwaukee, WI to participate in the 47th Annual Midwest Modern Language Association Convention, November 10-13, 2005, to participate in a reading (poetry and fiction) of work by Wisconsin writers.

Dr. Iris Jenkel, Assistant Professor of Business Administration $ 500.00
Funding for travel to San Antonio, TX to participate in the Society for Marketing Advances, November 1-5, 2005, to present a case titled "Differentiating an Academic Conference: The College of St. Germain," co-authored with Ed Chung, Joy Pahl, and Ruth McKay, and a paper titled "Students' Perception of Corporate Social Responsibility: A Longitudinal Analysis," co-authored with Paul Ngo and David Wicks.

Dr. Elizabeth Gordon, Assistant Professor of Geology $ 500.00
Funding for travel to Salt Lake City, UT to participate in the Annual National Meeting of the Geological Society of America, October 16-19, 2005, to present a paper titled "Development of a Stromatolite Reef During Early Ordovician Transgression, NE Wisconsin."

Dr. John Holder, Associate Professor of Philosophy $ 500.00
Funding for travel to Pacific Grove, CA to participate in the 2005 Society for Asian and Comparative Philosophy Conference, October 19-23, 2005, to present a paper titled "Reciprocity of Self and Other: An Early Buddhist Model for a Substantive Ethics" and to participate in a plenary panel on the future of comparative philosophy.

Dr. Matthew Stollak, Assistant Professor of Business Administration $ 500.00
Funding for travel to Arlington, VA to participate in The Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM) Conference, November 17-19, 2005, as College Relations Director, a member of the Wisconsin State SHRM Council, SHRM Student Chapter Advisor and SHRM Foundation Director, Wisconsin SHRM State Council.

Dr. William Hyland, Adjunct Assistant Professor of Classical Studies $ 250.00
Funding for travel to Sarasota, FL to participate in the Fifteenth Biennial New College Conference on Medieval & Renaissance Studies, March 9-11, 2005, to present a paper titled "The Climacteric of Late Medieval Camaldolese Spirituality: Ambrogio Traversari, John-Jerome of Prague, and the Linea Salutis Heremitarum."

Dr. Kathy Molnar, Assistant Professor of Business Administration $ 500.00
Funding for travel to San Francisco, CA to participate in the 36th Annual Meeting of the Decision Sciences Institute, November 19-22, 2005, to present a paper titled "E-Ethics: A Study of Undergraduate Student's Opinions of Intellectual Property in the Information Age" co-authored with Dr. Meg Kletke and Dr. Rohit Rampal.

Dr. Jim Neuliep, Professor of Communication $ 500.00
Funding for travel to Boston, MA to participate in the National Communication Association Annual Convention, November 17-20, 2005, to present a paper titled "The Influence of Intercultural Communication Apprehension and Ethnocentrism on Uncertainty Reduction During Cross-Cultural Interaction."

Dr. Darin Davis, Assistant Professor of Philosophy $ 500.00
Funding travel to Notre Dame, IN to participate in the Joy in Truth: The Catholic University in the New Millennium Conference, September 29- October 1, 2005, to present a paper titled "What Catholic Universities Can Learn from Non-Catholic."

Dr. Bradford Ellis, Assistant Professor of Spanish $ 500.00
Funding travel to Provo, UT to participate in the special conference, "Framing The Quixote": A Celebration of the 400 Anniversary of the Publications Cervantes' Don Quixote De La Mancha, October 12-15, 2005, to present a paper titled "Re-Examining Don Quixote from the In(n)side Out: The Importance and Place of 'El Curioso impertinente' in Book One."

Dr. Tim Flood, Associate Professor of Geology $ 500.00
Funding travel to Salt Lake City, UT to participate in the 117th Annual Meeting of the Geological Society of America, October 16-18, 2005, to present a paper titled "International Undergraduate Field Trips: Logistics, Challenges, and Successes," and to present a second paper titled "Identifying Relationships Among Magma Batches by Polytopic Vector Analysis: A Study of the Topopah Spring and Pah Canyon Ash-flow Sheets of the Southwest Nevada Volcanic Field."

Dr. Nelson Ham, Associate Professor of Geology $ 500.00
Funding travel to Salt Lake City, UT to participate in the 117th Annual Meeting of the Geological Society of America, October 16-18, 2005, to present a paper titled "International Undergraduate Field Trips: Logistics, Challenges, and Successes," and to present a second paper titled "Challenges and Rewards in Undergraduate Field Research: A Case Study of A Site Reu Program at the Matanuska Glacier, Alaska."

Dr. Jason Senjem, Assistant Professor of Business Administration $ 500.00
Funding travel to Orlando, FL to participate in the Strategic Management Society 25th Annual International Conference, October 22-26, 2005, to present a paper titled "Assessing Organizational Outcomes of Human Capital Investment Strategies."

Dr. Robert Kramer, Associate Professor of History..... $ 500.00
Funding travel to Bar-Ilan University, Ramat Gan, Israel to participate in the Bridging the Worlds of Islam and Judaism: A Research Project and International Conference, January 1-5, 2006, to present a paper titled "The Jews of the Sudan: Trade and Identity in the 19th and 20th Centuries."

Dr. Wayne Patterson, Professor of History $ 500.00
Funding travel to San Francisco, CA to participate in the 58th Annual Meeting of the Association for Asian Studies, April 6-9, 2006, to chair a panel titled "Between a Rock and a Hard Place: Rethinking Korean Nationalism and the Issue of Collaboration."

Dr. Paul Ngo, Associate Professor of Psychology $ 500.00
Funding for travel to San Antonio, TX to participate in the Society for Marketing Advances 2005 Conference, November 2-5, 2005, to present a paper titled "Students' Perception of Corporate Social Responsibility: Implications for Business School Pedagogy."

Dr. Thomas Reynolds, Assistant Professor of Religious Studies $ 500.00
Funding for travel to Philadelphia, PA to participate in the American Academy of Religion Conference, November 18-21, 2005, to present a paper titled "The Non-necessary Aspects of Religious Violence, or Toward an Iconic Monotheism."

Dr. Bola Delano, Assistant Professor of Education..... $ 500.00
Funding for travel to Wisconsin Dells, WI to participate in the Wisconsin State Human Relations Association, November 17-18, 2005, to present a paper titled "Preparing for 'life after' the Pre-Service Years: Developing the Electronic Multicultural Resource Guide."

Dr. Betsy Bauman-Martain, Assistant Professor of Religious Studies $ 500.00
Funding for travel to Philadelphia, PA to participate in the Society of Biblical Literature meeting, November 19-21, 2005, to serve on the steering committee for the new program unit "Methodological Reassessments of the Letters of James, Peter and Jude."

Dr. Susan Landt, Assistant Professor of Education $ 500.00
Funding for travel to Milwaukee, WI to participate in the Wisconsin State Reading Association Convention: Celebrating a Golden Legacy in Literacy, February 2-4, 2006, to present a paper titled "Multicultural Literature: Early Childhood to Middle Childhood" and another paper titled "Multicultural Literature: Early Adolescence to Adolescence."

Dr. Yoko Mogi-Hein, Adjunct Assistant Professor of Education $ 250.00
Funding for travel to Wisconsin Dells, WI to participate in the Wisconsin State Human Relations Association Statewide Equity and Multicultural Education Conference, November 17-18, 2005, to present a paper titled "Connecting Music, Social Studies, and Multicultural Education: A Model Lesson Plan for Wisconsin Heritage and Ethnic Celebrations" co-authored with SNC student Amber Wene.

Ms. Lynn Griebing, Adjunct Assistant Professor of Music $ 375.00
Funding for travel to San Antonio, TX to participate in the National Association of Teachers and Singing Winter Workshop: Vocology and the Singing Teacher, January 5-7, 2006.