

SNC Faculty Development Conference

Thursday, January 14, 1988
Second Floor Lounge:
Sensenbrenner Memorial Union
St. Norbert College

"The Nature and Role of Scholarship in a Liberal Arts College"

PROGRAM

-
- 8:45 - 9:00 a.m. Coffee and Conversation
-
- 9:00 - 10:00 a.m. "WHAT IS SCHOLARSHIP?: A SHARING OF PERSPECTIVES"
Presenters:
Fred Schmidt, Associate Professor of Music
Larry Thorsen, Associate Professor of Mathematics
Mary Alyce Lach, Associate Professor of Education
Emile Shihadeh, Professor of Business Administration
Respondent:
Michael Lukens, Associate Professor of Religious Studies
Moderator:
Jim Neuliep, Assistant Professor of Communication, Media, and Theatre
-
- 10:00 - 11:00 a.m. "THE NATURE OF DISCIPLINARY RESEARCH:
EXPLORING THE DIFFERENCES AND SIMILARITIES"
Panelists:
John Neary, Assistant Professor of English
Sharyl Peterson, Assistant Professor of Psychology
David Klopotek, Professor of Chemistry
Moderator:
Larry Scheich, Assistant Professor of Chemistry
-
- 11:00 - 11:15 a.m. Coffee Break
-
- 11:15 - 12:15 p.m. "THE CHALLENGES AND BENEFITS OF SCHOLARSHIP"
Presenters:
John Craghan, Associate Professor of Religious Studies:
"Publication as a Growth Experience"
Ray Zurawski, Assistant Professor of Psychology:
"How Research Enhances Teaching"
Karina O'Malley, Assistant Professor of Sociology:
"Finding the Balance Between Teaching and Scholarship"
Moderator:
David Wegge, Associate Professor of Political Science
-
- 12:15 - 1:15 p.m. Lunch: Compliments of the Office of Faculty Development, Shield Room
-