Spotlight On Scholarship

A Sabbatical Report

Throughout the year we will host a series of presentations to recognize professional achievement in scholarship and to celebrate the rich diversity and talents of our colleagues.

This Spotlight on Scholarship features

---

Karlyn Crowley

Associate Professor of English and Director of Women's and Gender Studies

“From Swedenborgian Hermaphrodites to Goddess Worshipers: Researching Gender in Alternative Cultures”

In her talk, Karlyn will share how she came to work on her research and where it has taken her intellectually. She will discuss a forthcoming article completed out of her sabbatical project on gender, alternative religion, and 19th century literature, “‘One [Hermaphroditic] Angel’: Swedenborg, Gender Complementarity, and Divine Love” in Julia Ward Howe’s The Hermaphrodite. She will also share highlights from her recent book: Feminism’s New Age: Gender, Appropriation, and the Afterlife of Essentialism. State University of New York (SUNY) Press, June, 2011. Karlyn will also explore how these recent projects led her to her current one on gender and natural parenting culture.

Friday, November 30, 2011
12:20 – 1:10 p.m.
Bemis Room 114 CD

The Office of Faculty Development will provide light refreshments.
