Spotlight On Scholarship

Throughout the year we will host a series of presentations to recognize professional achievement in scholarship and to celebrate the rich diversity and talents of our colleagues.

This Spotlight on Scholarship features

---

Kevin Quinn

Professor of Economics

2009 Donald B. King Distinguished Scholar Award Recipient

---

“Taking an Economist Out to the Ball Game”

Big-time professional athletes earn millions, sports stadia cost hundreds of millions, and leagues such as the NFL and MLB generate revenues in the billions. Kevin Quinn will discuss how economists approach questions about why some teams are more successful than others, how the market for players works, and why communities pony up for the Taj Mahals in which teams play.

Tuesday, October 6, 2009

2:00 – 2:50

Union Room 101B

The Office of Faculty Development will provide light refreshments.
