

The Offices of Faculty Development and Student Life invite you to attend a

Teaching & Learning Workshop

Please join us for the second in the fall 2006 series of workshops dedicated to promoting an exchange of ideas about teaching and learning.

Friday, November 10, 2006

3:00 - 4:30

Union Shield Room

“How Our Millennial Students Communicate: Facebook, Blogs, RSS, Linked-In, Websites”

Presented from the student perspective, this workshop is an informational session for faculty/staff to get a sense of how students communicate today. Our presenters will demonstrate some of the sites, explain uses, and explore potential consequences of using the technology.

Kurt Weber, Director of Counseling Center

Jerry Donahue, Director of Career Services

Bridget Krage O'Connor, Interim VP of Enrollment Management & Communications

Peter Romenesko, Freshman Blogger

Kurt Brenkus, Owner of Middle Coast, LLC

Dana Vanden Heuvel, Director of Business Development, Pheedo, Inc.

Adi Redzic, Secretary of the Student Government Association

Sophomore Political Science and International Studies Major, and Spanish Minor

Gloria Handschke, Junior Education Major, and Math Minor

The Office of FACULTY
DEVELOPMENT