

The Office of Faculty Development invites you to attend a

Teaching & Learning Workshop

Please join us for the first in the fall 2006 series of workshops dedicated to promoting an exchange of ideas about teaching and learning.

Friday

September 15, 2006

3:00 - 4:30

Bemis Room 220

“Podcasts, Blogs, and Wikis, Oh My!”

Technology changes at such a rapid pace, how does one keep up with it all? This workshop is intended to assist you to get up to speed in a short time with these and other new(er) technologies. This hands-on session will review what podcasts, blogs, wikis, IM, RSS, and Clickers are, highlight the educational impact of these technologies, and give you time to explore them yourself. Don't miss this interactive presentation so you can take advantage of what technology can do for you! Even if you do not intend to use these technologies, you will leave with a better understanding of what our students are talking about.
