Spotlight On Scholarship

A Sabbatical Report

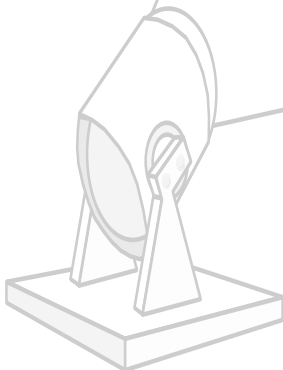

Throughout the year we will host a series of presentations to recognize professional achievement in scholarship and to celebrate the rich diversity and talents of our colleagues.

This Spotlight on Scholarship features

Larry McAndrews
Professor of History

What They Wished For:
The Political (Mis)Fortunes Of U.S. Catholics, 1960-2004

Larry McAndrews will discuss his preliminary Fall 2006 sabbatical research on the national lobbying efforts of American Catholics on matters of social justice, war and peace, and life and death from the presidency of Catholic Democrat John Kennedy of Massachusetts to the presidential candidacy of Catholic Democrat John Kerry of Massachusetts. Though many American Catholics sought political influence during this era, they did not always find it.

Wednesday, October 17, 2007
12:20 – 1:10
Union Shield Room

The Office of Faculty Development will provide complimentary refreshments.
