

You're invited to a Faculty Symposium
on

Qur'anic Criticism

Facilitated by

Dr. Jane McAuliffe

Tuesday, Oct. 2, 2007

9:00-11:00 a.m.

Bemis 20 CD

Dr. McAuliffe is the Senior Fellow at the Center for Muslim-Christian Understanding at Georgetown University. She will answer the following questions:

- Do Qur'anic scholars engage in textual/literary criticism?
- Is the process of the composition of the Qur'an open for discussion?
- Is Qur'anic exegesis and analysis similar to the analysis of biblical/historical/literary/philosophical texts?

Participants will receive The Cambridge Companion to the Qur'an

Refreshments will be served.

RSVP to Catherine Kasten at x3919 by Monday, Sept. 17, 2007.

Sponsored by

Killeen Chair of Theology and Philosophy

and

The Office of Faculty Development