2015 – 2016 Parent Confirmation of Taxable Grant/Scholarship Aid

Student Name _______________________________________________________________________________ Student ID Number _____________________________________________________________________________

Our office received your submitted FASFA which shows that your parent(s) were required to report grant/scholarship aid they received in 2014 as taxable income on their federal tax return. A dollar figure was reported for the following question on the FAFSA.

Question #93d: Enter the amount of your parents’ taxable student grant and scholarship aid reported to the IRS in your parents’ adjusted gross income. Includes AmeriCorp benefits (benefits, living allowances and interest accrual payments), as well as grant and scholarship portions of fellowships and assistantships.

Many families report a dollar figure for this question in error. Therefore, we would like to confirm that your parent(s) received grant/scholarship aid in 2014 and were required to report this financial aid as income on their tax return. This typically occurs when the grant/scholarship aid received is in excess of tuition, fees and course related expenses, such as books and supplies.

Please check one of the boxes below.

QUESTION #93D:

☐ My parent(s) were required to report grant/scholarship aid they received in 2014 as income on their federal tax return. I am enclosing documentation that supports this fact.

☐ My parent(s) did not receive grant/scholarship aid that they were required to report as taxable income on their federal tax return. Please update this question on my FAFSA to $0.
