PME Undergraduate Math Conference @ SNC

It is fast approaching! - November 7-8, 2008

Featured Speaker: Eve Torrence
from Randolph-Macon College

Please consider volunteering. We want the visitors to feel welcome at our event.

Test your math knowledge by joining the SNC team in Math Face-Off: Friday evening, Nov. 7.

Contact Dr. Poss if interested in volunteering or participating in Math Face-Off.

Would you like a mathematical challenge?

Try the Putnum Contest: A 12-question six-hour competition that takes place at colleges and universities across the country every year. Saturday, December 6, 9 a.m.-noon, 2-5 p.m.

OR

Try the Mathematical Contest in Modeling: an on-campus team event. February 5-9, 2009. <http://www.comap.com/undergraduate/contests/mcm/>

Contact Dr. Frohlinger if interested.

National Honorary Mathematics Society

Applications for Pi Mu Epsilon (PME) are being accepted until November 14.

To be eligible, you must meet these requirements:

1. Have an overall cumulative GPA of at least 3.0.
2. Have passed at least four college mathematics classes (calculus or higher) with a cumulative math G.P.A. of at least 3.0. If you started your math at SNC beyond Calculus I, the courses that you received credit for by taking them in high school will be considered an "A."
3. Be a member of the Sigma Nu Delta Math Club at SNC. (You can join the Math Club when you apply for PME.)
4. Pay a one time membership fee of $25 and the applicable membership fee for the Math Club ($7 for a year, $4 for one semester).

See Dr. Poss for more information.
