Global Leadership Certificate for study abroad/exchange students

Macquarie's Global Leadership Program (GLP) invites you to build your international knowledge and professional skills during your study abroad experience.

As a Study Abroad or Exchange GLP student you can take advantage of all the opportunities the program has to offer and enjoy interacting with like-minded Australian students.

What do I need to do?

Attend 5 three-hour colloquia (workshops) and a GLP Distinguished Speaker Series event over the semester or year in which you are here at Macquarie.

Topics include:

- Leadership
- Cross-Cultural Understanding
- Business Etiquette
- State Failure and Crisis in Sudan and Somalia
- Terrorism and Counter-Terrorism
- Effective Writing
- Career Mapping
- Australia and Japan's Dispute over Whales: International Law Dimensions and many more.

What will I get?

Students who successfully complete 5 colloquia and attend a Distinguished Speaker Series event will receive a certificate, reference letters and a GLP transcript detailing each of the activities attended.

How do I get involved?

To learn more about the certificate or to apply, please go to www.international.mq.edu.au/GLP and fill out the online application.

Students who undertake the Global Leadership Certificate will also be invited to attend other GLP events including the Consular Series and Cultural Series as well as Global Leadership Symposia.
