

Major in business

All business?

This is your college.

If you want to make your mark in the business world, St. Norbert College is the place to prepare.

The college's Donald J. Schneider School of Business & Economics is widely regarded as the hub of business intelligence in northeast Wisconsin and is home to both the college's undergraduate business majors and a respected MBA program.

While you study here (and long after), you'll tap into the knowledge of an outstanding faculty who are well-connected to the region's business community. Their passion is teaching, and with a 24-to-1 student-faculty ratio in the discipline, you'll enjoy exceptional access to them. You'll also benefit from an experiential approach to learning, focusing on problem-solving real business issues. Our alumni are prepared to hit the ground running.

Choose from five majors:

Data Analytics

Accounting

Business Administration

International Business and Language Area Studies

Economics

In addition, we offer minors and concentrations that let you focus on:

Leadership

Finance

Sports Management

Marketing

General Management

Human Resources

Entrepreneurship

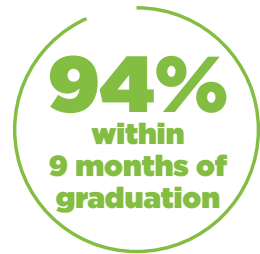

The opportunities are endless to pursue what matters most to you.

Internships while you're here, jobs when you graduate

Northeast Wisconsin is home to numerous regional and global companies, and our students find abundant internship opportunities here.

Those same companies eagerly employ our graduates: In fact, 94 percent of our students are employed or pursuing graduate studies within 9 months of graduation, a testament to the excellent education you'll receive here.

Where our grads work: 3M • Allstate • American Family Insurance • Bank of America Merrill Lynch • BestBuy • Breakthrough • Caterpillar Equipment • Demiplane • GE Healthcare • Georgia Pacific • Green Bay Packaging Inc. • Humana • Kimberly-Clark • Kohler • Nicolet Bank • The Nielsen Co. • PricewaterhouseCoopers • Schneider National Inc. • Schreiber Foods • Target • Ulta Beauty • US Venture • The Washington Nationals • and many more

Become the kind of able communicator, nimble thinker and confident leader companies crave. Come to St. Norbert and pursue the skills and experiences you need to thrive in business.
