Elective/Minor courses can be used to take additional core curriculum courses, major courses, free electives, or to fulfill a minor.

This paradigm assumes that you will meet the second language competency by taking a language at the 102 level. If you need to start at 101, then one of the electives will be used for that course.

- The arrangement of courses for the English major offers considerable flexibility; students should consult their English advisor to discuss suitable options. This paradigm presents a reasonable plan.

September, 2014 (CC update spring 2015)
Required Courses:

- ENGL 150 – Introduction to Literary Studies (C-EI)
- ENGL 225 or 226 – Survey of English Literature 1 – Beginnings to Johnson, Survey of English Literature 2 – Blake to the Present
- ENGL 235 or 236 – Survey of U.S. Literature 1 – Beginnings to 1865, Survey of U.S. Literature 2 – 1865 to the Present
- ENGL 305 – Literary Theory and Writing
- Major Author – ENGL 325, ENGL 334, or ENGL 339 – Chaucer, Milton, or Shakespeare’s Drama
- ENGL 489 – Advanced Seminar in English Literary Studies
- ENGL 499 – Senior portfolio (0 credits)
- ENGL Elective ____________
- ENGL Elective ____________
- ENGL Elective ____________
- ENGL Elective ____________

- ENGL 150 should be taken during the first year.
- Students interested in teaching may want to consider taking both semesters of the English and American Survey courses (ENGL 225/226, ENGL 235/236).
- For students choosing a Secondary Education Certification, one ENGL elective must be ENGL 310 or ENGL 356, and another must be ENGL 290.
- For students choosing a Creative Writing Concentration, one ENGL elective must be ENGL 307 or ENGL 308, and another must be ENGL 425.
- Students should take ENGL 305 as soon as they are ready (sophomore or junior year), but not without some more advanced coursework in literature. Most students should take ENGL 305 after at least two or three literature courses, no sooner than the second semester of sophomore year (junior year may work best).
- Major author options include ENGL 325, ENGL 334, or ENGL 339. Students should take the major author course during their sophomore or junior year.
- All English majors are required to collect and submit a senior English portfolio (one essay or writing assignment from each ENGL course taken and a self-evaluative introductory essay) to fulfill graduation requirements (ENGL 499). During their coursework, English majors will store essays and writing assignments electronically under the supervision of their academic advisor(s). Senior portfolios (ENGL 499) are due at the conclusion of the English major’s coursework. See www.snc.edu/english/portfolio.html.
