

What can I do with a major in International Studies?

CAREER & PROFESSIONAL

DEVELOPMENT

Overview

- A major in international studies prepares students to thrive as individuals, prosper as professionals and participate as citizens in the global community of the 21st century. This requires increasing their awareness of how global forces will shape their lives and their communities.

OFFICE OF

- The international studies major is designed for students who are interested in government service, international law, international and regional non-governmental organizations, and various international and service organizations and programs. It also prepares students for graduate study in a variety of international fields.
