Building momentum

As we look back on a year that has seen the college move forward in several areas of great significance, it is clear that our pursuit of excellence continues apace.
It had been an uncomfortably hot, wet summer, and going into Labor Day weekend the weather remained much better suited to mosquitoes and mildew than to football.

But on the Friday evening before our first kickoff, a cold front blasted through the area as if on cue. Saturday broke clear and dry, a good 20 degrees cooler than it had been all the previous week. So even though the calendar insisted it was late summer, we had a perfect fall day to open the Donald J. Schneider Stadium and Outdoor Athletics Complex.

An hour before our game with highly ranked St. Thomas, smoke from dozens of grills was wafting over the grounds: clear sign that tailgating had begun. The Arndt-Bush Center, a commodious picnic pavilion, was full of St. Norbert alums. Over here children were romping on freshly laid sod near the ticket booths, over there they were carefully navigating the prayer labyrinth so generously underwritten by Don and Carol Kress.

St. Norbert gear was being snatched up as quickly as the brats and the hamburgers in the concession stands.

Clearly we weren’t at Minahan Stadium anymore.

I know many of you were among the boisterous crowd of 3,500 who helped us open Schneider Stadium, a beautiful facility and the envy of most other Division III programs. Almost 200 former Green Knight football players returned and joined the family of legendary coach Howard “Chick” Kolstad to dedicate the state-of-the-art, all-weather field in his honor.

On such a glorious day, full of so much pageantry and pride, even our ultimate defeat at the hands of the talented Tommies couldn’t diminish the sense of celebration.

Schneider Stadium is the new home for our football team, as well as our men’s and women’s soccer and track programs. It represents another huge step in St. Norbert’s ongoing pursuit of excellence – and not just because of the competitive edge it’s apt to give our teams. It’s also helping in our overall student recruiting and, as you can read on page 18 of this magazine, we saw an incoming freshman class that was a record both in terms of its size and its academic achievement.

That freshman cohort in turn is part of a record total enrollment at St. Norbert College this fall, an indication of the institution’s robust health as it enters its 113th year of operation.

Indeed, we feel we’ve had much to celebrate in 2010. In its widely watched rankings, U.S. News & World Report recently reported that St. Norbert is continuing its rise among the nation’s leading liberal arts colleges. And a newer national ranking by Forbes magazine, which is pegged to students’ satisfaction with their collegiate experience, sees St. Norbert take its place along with Lawrence and Beloit as the top three colleges and universities in Wisconsin, public or private.

On the academic side of things, our outstanding faculty continue to distinguish themselves, nationally and even internationally – publishing important books, for instance, on topics ranging from the Incan civilization to interpersonal communications to the Catholic intellectual tradition. And in May the college partnered with the Green Bay Packers in a first-of-its-kind collaboration for a national conference on the impact of sports in American society – an event that brought hundreds of academics and sports experts to our campus, and garnered extensive media attention.

As you know, we take this opportunity every fall to report to you on matters financial. In that vein, too, we continue to perform well, especially considering the shaky nature of the economy. On May 31, we finished the college financial year ahead of budget on revenue and well beneath projected expenses, and, as before, much of that difference was reinvested in maintenance of our plant and other capital needs.

That performance was helped considerably, as always, by our many benefactors. We received nearly $10 million in gifts and donations in FY2010, and more than $1.4 million of that went to our important St. Norbert Fund. Most remarkably, despite the challenging economic times, we saw the total number of our donors increase by nearly 250 over last year. Your assistance in some way touched literally every student at St. Norbert College.

And it seemed as if virtually every one of those Green Knight students came out to help us kick off Schneider Stadium – a symbol of the vitality of a college with genuine momentum.
People who believe in St. Norbert College have always been ready to contribute to its future, prompting our deepest gratitude. Financial support comes from many sources, and every gift makes a difference to current and future students.

A continuum of engagement

“I am a St. Norbert College ……………………………... .”

It’s easy for most of us to complete that sentence. Student, alum, parent, faculty member, staff member, friend … we all know who we are in relation to the college right now.

When we include the past, our answers may become somewhat more complex: “I was a student; now I’m an alum.” Or, “I’m a legacy student; both my parents and one of my grandparents attended St. Norbert.”

Look to the future, and the answers might grow more elaborate still: “I plan to go to graduate school and return to join the SNC faculty.” “Next year, our daughter will enroll at St. Norbert.” “We’re hoping to establish a scholarship for needy students.” “I plan to bring two SNC students into my company as interns.” (And of course, there’s much about the future we just can’t anticipate.)

When we look at all of it – past, present and future – what becomes clear is that, for all its change, for all its steady evolution, our relationship with our college is an enduring one. We experience a continuum of engagement and interaction that spans our lives, bonding us to those who came before and those who will come after us.

It is indeed true that, with regard to St. Norbert, we “belong to all its yesterdays and will be a part of all its tomorrows.” We are connected always.

The work of the division of college advancement is to help maintain that connectedness – to keep us engaged in the remarkable and ongoing history of St. Norbert College. Its staff strive to provide us, throughout the continuum of our lives, with a parallel continuum of involvement with the college that is both meaningful and rewarding.

It begins with outreach to our current students, to help instill in them the knowledge that long after they’ve graduated, St. Norbert will always be their “home by the river.”

It continues through the efforts of the office of alumni and parent relations staff, who help us extend a warm “welcome home” – in a literal sense when alumni return to campus to visit, and in a figurative one when we engage alumni in their home communities through activities and events.

It extends to the college’s fundraising entities, which provide opportunities for community members at all stages of their life’s journey to help the college maintain and build on its proud 112-year legacy.

And it drives the division’s development of partnerships with corporations and foundations, not only to build a stronger college for future generations, but to strengthen the bonds between the college, our community and our region.

We have all been brought together to share the special experience of belonging to the St. Norbert College community. We’re encouraged to remember that this singular institution is always home, and we have a common responsibility to preserve and carry forward what has been built here.

All of us – students and alumni, parents and friends, faculty and staff – belong to the yesterdays and tomorrows of St. Norbert College.

“I stand by the river and I know that it has been here yesterday and will be here tomorrow and that therefore, since I am part of its pattern today, I also belong to all its yesterdays and will be a part of all its tomorrows.”

—Virginia Eifert, Wisconsin naturalist
The 1898 Society

A new and vital society, established last financial year, recognizes those whose support is fueling the momentum that is taking St. Norbert College to new standards of excellence.

The 1898 Society honors in its name the year of the founding of St. Norbert College. The college’s achievements over the past 112 years and its vision for continued growth are both testimony to the ongoing generosity of the friends whose gifts, large and small, make all possible.

This donor recognition society acknowledges individuals, couples, foundations and corporations. It is a means of recognizing those who give annually to St. Norbert College, who make a major gift to the college, or who indicate their support through a planned gift by remembering the college in their will.

Current giving, lifetime giving and planned giving are recognized by membership at various levels within the 1898 Society. These guilds and clubs honor the leadership, dedication and extraordinary philanthropy that encourages excellence in our students, faculty and staff; expands the college’s academic programs; and provides for the maintenance and construction of essential facilities. (Class participation rates in this honor roll reflect the percentage of living alumni who gave to the college during the 2009-10 financial year.)

Additional information about the 1898 Society is available at www.snc.edu/go/1898society.

An Honor Roll of Donors is maintained online at www.snc.edu/advancement/annualreport.html.

How the giving levels work:

Lifetime Giving

Norbert Guild — Donors who have made gifts to St. Norbert College totaling $1 million or more over their lifetime.

Pennings Guild — Donors who have made gifts to St. Norbert College totaling $250,000 or more over their lifetime.

Burke Guild — Donors who have made gifts to St. Norbert College totaling $50,000 or more over their lifetime.

Current Giving 2009-10

The President’s Club — Donors who have made gifts to St. Norbert College totaling $2,000 or more over the previous fiscal year.

The Dean’s Club — Donors who have made gifts to St. Norbert College totaling $1,000-$1,999 over the previous fiscal year.

The Main Hall Club — Donors who have made gifts to St. Norbert College totaling $500-$999 over the previous fiscal year.

The Founder’s Club — Donors who have made gifts to St. Norbert College totaling $100-$499 over the previous fiscal year.

Planned Giving

Anselm Keefe Society — Donors of any age who have made a planned gift: a future bequest, charitable gift annuity, charitable remainder trust, charitable lead trust or life insurance policy with St. Norbert College as a beneficiary.
When new students enroll at St. Norbert College, they begin a relationship that will continue far beyond their years on campus. Membership in the college community is truly something that lasts a lifetime.

Graduation from St. Norbert College doesn’t mean “farewell.”
Indeed, alumni often find their relationship with the college as richly rewarding as it was while they were students.

President’s Report 2009-10
Alumni are always welcome home to St. Norbert, and on-campus events like Homecoming, Reunion Weekend and SNC Day draw them back to campus year-round.

Family weekends offer students the chance to “show off” their college experience to their parents and others, as do events ranging from SNC Day (autumn’s campus-wide open house) to numerous sports, music and theatre offerings.
As part of our lifelong engagement with the college, we all share in the challenge of supporting it to maintain 100-plus years of progress and momentum, and to provide current and future generations the opportunity to experience the unique joys of a St. Norbert education.

The support of our friends is essential to the advancement of the college; such generosity is also at the heart of the Norbertine value of communitas.
Alumni and others are invited to support the St. Norbert Fund—a critical source of revenue. Helping bridge the gap between the amount of money the students can afford and the cost of running the college, the fund enables us to achieve institutional excellence while helping students.

All around campus are testaments to the generosity of those who support St. Norbert College. Some take the form of state-of-the-art facilities; others, scholarships and chairs. But perhaps most compelling is the experience of our students.

President's Report 2009-10
The continuum of engagement provides sustenance to both the institution and the ongoing relationships we enjoy as members of the St. Norbert College community.
