
St. Norbert College

Directory of New Faculty Orientation Program Invitees

Sponsored by The Office of Faculty Development - August 15, 16, 17, 2018

Dr. Chris Bradford, Assistant Professor of Teacher Education, graduated from St. Norbert College with a B.A. in Education and Geology in 2004. Chris earned his M.A. in Education from Viterbo University in 2011, and his Ph.D. in Curriculum and Instruction from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 2016. Chris' scholarship focuses on teacher learning, teacher education, and teacher identity.

Office: Boyle 237, Phone: ext. 3093, Email: chris.bradford@snc.edu, Mentor: Reid Riggle

Dr. Erinn Brooks, Assistant Professor of Sociology, graduated Summa Cum Laude with a B.A. from Beloit College, Beloit, Wisconsin. Erinn earned her M.A. and Ph.D. in Sociology from North Carolina State University. Her research examines how race, class, and gender inequalities unfold in institutions and organizations, particularly schools and workplaces. Erinn joins the SNC faculty from Manchester University, North Manchester, Indiana, where she served as Assistant Professor of Sociology for two years. Office: Boyle 455, Phone: ext. 2919, Email: erinn.brooks@snc.edu, Mentor: Kathleen Gallagher Elkins

Autumm Caines, Instructional Designer in Academic Technology, graduated in 2008 from Eastern Michigan University with a B.S. in Communication Technology before completing an M.A. in Educational Technology at The Ohio State University in 2016. Before arriving at St. Norbert, Autumm was Associate Director of Academic Technology at Capital University in Columbus, Ohio. Autumm's professional and scholarship interests include blended and online pedagogies, open education, digital citizenship, educational access, technology's effects on diverse populations, as well as online privacy and security. Autumm is also very passionate about Domain of One's Own - an educational technology initiative that empowers students, faculty, and staff to take responsibility for a little piece of the internet that they can call their own. Office: Cofrin 119, Phone: ext. 3281, Email: autumm.caines@snc.edu

Dr. Miles Condon, Assistant Professor of Business Administration - Marketing, received his B.S. in Psychology from the University of Florida before moving on to Texas Tech University to earn his M.A. in Experimental Psychology and Ph.D. in Business Administration - Marketing. His research looks broadly at consumer behavior, with an emphasis on consumer attitudes and branding.

Office: Cofrin 313, Phone: ext. 3405, Email: miles.condon@snc.edu, Mentor: Ben Huegel

Ms. Jessica Demovsky is interim coordinator of the writing program at St. Norbert College, where she has been an adjunct instructor for six years. She has 15 years of experience teaching writing at the college level. Jessica earned a Bachelor of Science in journalism from Ohio University and a Master of Arts in English literature from Marquette University.

Office: Boyle 356, Phone: ext. 2997, Email: Jessica.demovsky@snc.edu, Mentor: John Pennington

Dr. Jaime Edwards is Assistant Professor of Philosophy at St. Norbert College. He graduated with highest distinction from UC Berkeley with a B.A. in philosophy. He earned his M.A. and Ph.D. in philosophy from the University of Chicago. Dr. Edwards specializes in social & political philosophy, and his research focuses on the origins and effects of ideological (false, system-justifying) beliefs.

Office: Boyle 421, Phone: ext. 3362, Email: jamie.edwards@snc.edu, Mentor: Ben Chan

Mr. Jon Enslin, Vice President of College Advancement. Jonathan C. Enslin began serving as vice president for advancement at St. Norbert College in July 2018. A Wisconsin native, Jonathan earned his bachelor's degree from Marquette University and his MBA from UW-Whitewater, where his 22-year career included various developmental roles, including vice chancellor for advancement and president of the UW-Whitewater foundation. Jonathan also served in development roles at Indiana State University in Terre Haute, Ind., and Mount Mary College in Milwaukee.

Office: Main 312, Phone: ext. 3375, Email: jon.enslin@snc.edu

Ms. Heidi Fagre, Sophomore Block Supervisor, graduated with a B.A. from Carthage College, Kenosha, WI. Heidi earned her M.A. in At Risk Education through Marion University, Fond du Lac, WI. She was a public school teacher for 10 years and is looking forward to encouraging a new group of students to pursue a highly important careers in education.

Office: Boyle 225, Phone: ext. 3004, Email: heidi.fagre@snc.edu

Ms. Marcy Frayseth, Teacher Education Supervisor, graduated with a B.S. in Cognitive Disabilities and Psychology from Northern Michigan University, Marquette, Michigan. Marcy earned her M.A. in Creative Arts in Curriculum from Lesley College in Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Office: Boyle 225, Phone: ext. 3004, Email: marcy.frayseth@snc.edu

Dr. Sydney Keough, Assistant Professor of Philosophy, graduated with a B.A. from Haverford College, and earned her Ph.D. in Philosophy from the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, in 2018. Sydney's research lies at the intersection of epistemology and feminist philosophy.

Office: Boyle 420, Phone: ext. 2905, Email: sydney.keough@snc.edu, Mentor: Karlyn Crowley

Dr. Dan Kling, Visiting Assistant Professor of Economics. Dr. Daniel Kling received his Bachelor of Arts in Economics and English from Truman State University in 2007. He taught English in a rural Japanese junior high school for two years. He earned his Master of Arts in Economics (2012) and his Doctor of Philosophy in Economics (2018) from George Mason University. He joined the St. Norbert Faculty as a Visiting Assistant Professor of Economics in 2018. Office: Cofrin 307, Phone: ext. 3224, Email: dan.kling@snc.edu, Mentor: Joy Pahl

Dr. Carrie Larson is an Assistant Professor in Latin American History. She earned her B.A. at Lawrence University, and her M.A. and Ph.D. at UW-Madison. After living and teaching in Wyoming for seven years, joining St. Norbert College is very much a homecoming. Her current research focuses on modern Argentina, and particularly on state violence against indigenous peoples during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries.

Office: Boyle 408, Phone: ext. 3046, Email: carrie.larson@snc.edu, Mentor: Abby Trollinger

Dr. Alison Baird Lovell, Visiting Assistant Professor of Modern Languages and Literatures (French), holds a Ph.D. in French at the City University of New York (CUNY) Graduate Center with a certificate in Renaissance studies, and a B.A. in religion from Barnard College. Her research focuses on medieval and early modern French and Italian literature. Her monograph, The Shadow of Dante in French Renaissance Lyric: Scève's Délie, is under contract and forthcoming. Her next book project investigates philosophical libertine thought in Boccaccio and La Fontaine. She teaches French language and literary studies courses.

Office: Boyle 354, Phone: ext. 3201, Email: alison.lovell@snc.edu, Mentor: Shalisa Collins

Dr. Nicholas Mauro, Assistant Professor of Physics, graduated with B.A. from Lawrence University. Nick went on to earn his M.A. and Ph.D in Materials Physics at Washington University in St. Louis, where he became interested in using x-ray and neutron scattering to understand how atomic and molecular ordering can be used to engineer materials for a wide variety of applications. Nick's current scholarship focuses on developing ionic liquids for the next generation of ion battery and he regularly conducts experiments at several national laboratories as well as at international user facilities.

Office: GMS 2108, Phone ext. 3063, Email: nicholas.mauro@snc.edu, Mentor: Michael Olson

Dr. Brian Pietsch, Visiting Assistant Professor of Mathematics, graduated with a B.S. in Mathematics and Physics from St. Norbert College. Brian earned his Ph.D. in Mathematics from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee. Brian's area of research is in topology, with a focus on geometric group theory.

Office: GMS 2109, Phone: ext. 2947, Email: brian.pietsch@snc.edu, Mentor: Seth Meyer

Dr. Elliot Ratzman, Visiting Assistant Professor of Theology and Religious Studies, graduated with a B.A. and M.A. in Philosophy from Ohio University in Athens, Ohio. Ratzman earned his Masters in Theological Studies from Harvard Divinity School and his Ph.D. in Religion (Religion, Ethics, and Politics Track) from Princeton University. Ratzman's scholarship focuses on Jewish and Christian forms of ethical practices, political engagement, and theological encounters.

Office: Boyle 452, Phone: ext. 2902, Email: elliott.ratzman@snc.edu, Mentor: Howard Ebert

Dr. AnaMaria Seglie, Assistant Professor of English. AnaMaria Seglie Clawson is now a permanent member of our English discipline as an Assistant Professor. She specializes in early American literature and her research takes up critical questions surrounding transnationalism, religion, race, gender and genre. Office: Boyle 332, Phone: ext. 3145, Email:

anamaria.seglie@snc.edu, Mentor: Deirdre Egan-Ryan

Dr. Daniel Stoll, Associate Dean of Global Affairs. As a member of the U.S. Foreign Service, Daniel Stoll was posted in the U.S. Embassy in Baghdad, Iraq, the U.S. Consulate General in Johannesburg, South Africa and in the Near East Bureau of the U.S. Department of State. Before coming to St. Norbert, Daniel held several positions at Georgetown University, including senior associate dean for academic affairs in the University's School of Professional Studies, and associate dean for academic affairs at Georgetown's campus in Doha, Qatar, and before that served at the University of Missouri-Kansas as director of international academic programs, as well as deputy to the chancellor. Daniel researches issues of water and food security in the Middle East, and international higher education administration. Office: Bemis 303, Phone: ext. 3263, Email: dan.stoll@snc.edu

Dr. Andrea Thiry-Wenz, Teacher Supervision.
Office: Boyle 225, Phone: ext. 3004, Email:

Dr. Leah Hutchison Toth joins St. Norbert College as an Assistant Professor of English after serving as a Visiting Assistant Professor at Hampden-Sydney College in Virginia. Leah earned her Ph.D. in English Literature from the University of Kentucky after completing her B.S. at Troy University and her M.A. at the University of Alabama at Birmingham. She has enjoyed teaching courses in twentieth century literature, sound, and music, and her research examines relationships between emerging sound recording technologies and representations of the self in experimental modern literature.
Office: Boyle 355, Phone: ext. 3064, Email: leah.toth@snc.edu, Mentor: Ed Ridsen

Dr. Jamie Karp Waroff, Assistant Professor of Music, graduated with a B.M.E. from the University of Northern Colorado with an emphasis in K-12 instrumental music. She earned her M.M. in trumpet performance from the University of Wyoming and her D.M.A. in trumpet performance with a related field in Musicology from The University of North Texas.
Office: APHFA 127, Phone: ext. 4029, Email: jamie.waroff@snc.edu, Mentor: Debbie Kupinsky

Ms. Ellen Whiteman, Visiting Assistant Professor of Sociology.
Office: GMS STW 123, Phone: ext. 2917 Email: ellen.whiteman@snc.edu, Mentor: Alexa Trumphy