Spotlight On Scholarship

Throughout the year we will host a series of presentations to recognize professional achievement in scholarship and to celebrate the rich diversity and talents of our colleagues.

This Spotlight on Scholarship features

Stephen Rupsch

Associate Professor of Theatre Studies

2016 Donald B. King Distinguished Scholar Award Recipient

“The Creation and Growth of Theatre Z”

Stephen Rupsch will discuss the creation and growth of Theatre Z, a small theatre company he founded in 2011 with April Beiwenger. What started as a summer grant to generate a feasibility study eventually became the core values for four productions thus far. Rupsch will discuss the challenges and successes of the growth of the company, with celebrating this year becoming an official nonprofit and employing union actors. Rupsch will also address questions related to the relationship of performing arts and the Green Bay community.
