Confirmation of Dislocated Worker Status

Student Name

Student ID Number

On your FAFSA form you indicated that either you or your parent is a dislocated worker. In general, a person may be considered a dislocated worker if he or she is: (1) receiving unemployment benefits due to being laid off or losing a job and is unlikely to return to a previous occupation (2) has been laid off or received a lay-off notice from a job (3) was self-employed but is now unemployed due to economic conditions or natural disaster (4) is a displaced homemaker. A displaced homemaker is generally a person who previously provided unpaid services to the family (e.g., a stay-at-home mom or dad), is no longer supported by the husband or wife, is unemployed or underemployed, and is having trouble finding or upgrading employment.

1. Which of the following best reflects your situation:

- Parent is a dislocated worker                       Parent is a displaced homemaker
 Student or spouse is a dislocated worker       Student or spouse is a displaced homemaker
 Neither the student nor student's spouse is a dislocated worker
 Neither the mother/stepmother nor father/stepfather is a dislocated worker

2. Who is the dislocated worker/displaced homemaker?

- Student       Spouse       Mother/Stepmother       Father/Stepfather

3. Explain the reason for designation as dislocated worker/displaced homemaker (please attach copies of appropriate documentation to support this status, i.e. unemployment statement, letter of termination, etc.)
