Assets are meant to reflect a snapshot on the date you first complete your initial FAFSA and should not be updated even if they change or fluctuate in value.

Our office received a revised FAFSA which shows that you updated the value of your student investment net worth on the FAFSA. Assets cannot be updated at a later date unless they were inaccurately reported on your initial FAFSA application. Therefore, please complete the following and return to the Office of Financial Aid.

STUDENT INVESTMENT NET WORTH:

1. Student Investment Net Worth Value:

- Was correctly reported on my initial 2018 – 2019 FAFSA application and should not have been updated. Please update my FAFSA to reflect the student investment net worth value reported on my initial FAFSA application.
- Was incorrectly reported on my initial 2018 – 2019 FAFSA application. Therefore, I updated my FAFSA to reflect the correct value of my investment net worth that that should have been reported on the date of my initial 2018 – 2019 FAFSA. Explanation is required (i.e. erroneously included my parent(s) investments as my own, added an extra zero, etc.):
