

Madeline Schultz, the American Red Cross Blood Donor Program Coordinator at St. Norbert College, Health & Wellness Services, has received a Certificate of Appreciation for outstanding support and dedication to the program for 2017-2018.

Certificate of Appreciation
Presented to
Madeline Schultz
For outstanding support and dedication to the American Red Cross Blood Donor Program.
Your efforts helped to collect 218 pints of life saving blood during the 2017-2018 school year.
Congratulations
Demor Recruitment Account Manager
American Red Cross