~ Senior Bios ~

Trenton Bebermeier is a senior music performance major, emphasizing the trumpet. He is currently in the trumpet studio of Dr. Jamie Waroff, and the guitar studio of Dr. Christopher Cramer. He is also a member of the St. Norbert wind, jazz, and brass ensembles. His favorite musical artists are Chopin, Shostakovich, Ornette Coleman, and Phil Ochs.

Holly Buczek is a senior from Grafton, Wisconsin. She is graduating with a degree in Elementary Education, and was involved in music all four years at SNC. Her first semester, she was in the piano quartet led by Mrs. Elaine Moss, and then transitioned to Wind Ensemble for her remaining semesters. She plays oboe and piano. Holly would like to thank her family for their love and support, and her friends for always staying by her side. She couldn't have done it without them!

Katie Coyle is a senior music education major from Green Bay, Wisconsin. She is graduating from the program with triple certification in choral, instrumental, and general music. While at SNC, Katie has studied voice under Dr. Sarah Parks and clarinet under Mr. Nicklas Waroff. She has been a part of several college ensembles, namely Concert Choir, Chamber Singers, Wind Ensemble, and the Abbey Singers. Katie loves to offer her music in the context of worship, and throughout her life has been involved in multiple music ministries for various Catholic churches. She is very attracted to the missionary lifestyle and hopes to spend her life after college serving the Catholic Church and spreading the love of Jesus Christ in whatever capacity she is called to. Katie would like to thank her family for all of their support throughout the many years of music lessons and opportunities, and she would like to thank God the Father, who is ever so generous, for giving her all of the means necessary for making music. All for the greater glory of God!

Kassidy Freund is a graduating senior from Fond du Lac, WI. She is completing her bachelor's degree in Instrumental and General Music education, and has played bass trombone in the St. Norbert College Wind Ensemble for the last four years. She has greatly enjoyed her time at SNC, and is so grateful for her supportive professors. She is finishing her student teaching placement in the Howard-Suamico district. She is currently applying for jobs and hopes to be either a general music teacher or band director! Kassidy wants to thank everyone in the music department who has made the last four years a joy, and her family for their support throughout her time.

Carly Larson is a senior from Wautoma, Wisconsin. She is graduating with a degree in Choral/General Music Education. Carly was in the vocal studio of Mrs. Linda Feldmann for 3 years and the flute studio of Dr. Kortney James for 2 years. During her time at SNC, she performed on stage in Knight Theatre's productions of The Addams Family, Tuck Everlasting, and Knight Theatre Through the Years. She also sang with the SNC Knightingales and was part of Wind Ensemble, Concert Band, Chamber Singers, Concert Choir, and Bell Choir. Carly would like to thank her husband, family (both the Hartenbergers and the Larsons!), and friends for all of the love and support they have shown her. She would also like to give a gigantic thanks to her loving God who brought her here and grew her relationship with Him through Cru and more throughout her time at SNC.

Trent Larson is a senior from Hortonville, Wisconsin. He is graduating with a degree in General/Choral Music Education. He was in the vocal studio of Dr. Yi-Lan Niu for 4 years. He has been involved in Wind Ensemble, Jazz, Chamber Singers, the Knights on Broadway, and SNC's Acafellas. During his time as a student, Trent performed by acting and playing trumpet in SNC's Knight Theatre productions for 3 years. Trent would like to thank his family for their love and support, and Jesus Christ for turning his life around after his first year in college.

Noah Liptack is a senior from Forney, Texas. After 3 years at SNC, he is graduating with a Degree in Economics. Noah has been involved in Wind Ensemble, playing the bassoon. He is a Research Analyst Fellow at the Center for Business and Economic Analysis, a tutor, and has been involved with the college's Economics Honor Society, serving as Vice President of the chapter. Noah would like to thank his family for all their love and support, and for instilling a love of music in him from a young age.

Cassie Nooyen is a senior from Green Bay, Wisconsin. She is graduating with a degree in Computer Science with minors in Mathematics and Graphic Design. She has been involved by playing the clarinet in Wind Ensemble and Concert Band over the past four years. Cassie worked on the Academic Technology team at the Tech Bar as a student consultant. During her time as a student, she also was the president of the Catholic Women's group Chiara, Computer Science Club, and Women in STEM. Cassie would like to thank her family and friends for their endless support and countless memories over the past four years!

Lauren Pamperin is a senior from Marion, Wisconsin. She is graduating with a Degree in Computer Science and a Minor in Music. She has been involved in Wind Ensemble during her time at SNC as well as many Knight Theatre productions. Outside of music, Lauren has been involved in Circle K and Computer Science Club. Lauren would like to thank her family and friends for their love and continued support!

Nate Perttu is a senior from Green Bay, Wisconsin and he will be graduating with a degree in Music Education. Nate plays the trombone, euphonium, and tuba and was in the studio of Dr. Eric High for 3 years. During his time as a student he has been involved in various ensembles at SNC, including Jazz Ensemble, Wind Ensemble, Klezmer Ensemble, and Concert Choir and was also involved in multiple Knight Theatre productions as a member of the pit. Nate would like to thank his family and friends for all their support during his college journey and as he begins his career as a music educator!

Morgan Rabas is a Senior from New Franken, WI, pursuing a Education Studies Degree. Morgan has been a part of the band and choir all throughout her 4 years here. She is in many different clubs and activities including soccer, CRU, knitting club, and bible studies. Morgan has been able to be active in college life and the music department all while working every year. Morgan would like to thank both of her professors Dr. Sarah Parks, and Dr. Philip Klickman for the amazing experiences of the last 4 years. She would also like to thank her family, friends and faculty for being supportive in everything she does in the music program and other activities she is involved in.

Brice Tepsa is a senior from Howard, Wisconsin. He will be graduating with a degree in Instrumental Music Education. He performed in the St. Norbert Wind Ensemble, Concert Band, Brass Ensemble, and Jazz Ensemble, and Chamber Singers. After graduation, Brice will be commissioning as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Army, and teaching in a local school. Brice would like to thank his friends, his parents Jennifer and Don, and his fiance, Valerie Singer, for their overwhelming support throughout his time at St. Norbert College.

Jonathan Tesch, from Seymour, WI, is graduating with a major in instrumental music education. During his time at St. Norbert College, he has performed as a member of many ensembles including Concert Band, Commencement Band, Wind Ensemble, Bell Choir, Concert Choir, Chamber Singers, Jazz Ensemble, and The Civic Symphony of Green Bay. Jonathan has also been involved with several student organizations on campus including NAFME, Rowing Club, Knight Theatre, and Acafellas. He is particularly proud of his time directing the pit orchestra during the 2021 performance of “Knight Theatre Through the Years.” Jonathan has also enjoyed serving as a band librarian for the SNC music department. He would like to give a special thanks to his family, friends, and instructors for their love and support.

Emily Thorson is a senior from Chicago, Illinois, who will be graduating with a degree in Instrumental Music Education. During her time at St. Norbert, Emily was a member of the Wind Ensemble, Concert Band, and a clarinet student in the studio of Mr. Nicklas Waroff. Emily is also a graduating member of the St. Norbert College Honors Program, and has served as the president of St. Norbert's Pep Band for the past two years. She would like to extend thanks to her parents for always being her biggest fans and supporting her through college.

David Vogel is a senior from Kiel, Wisconsin. He is graduating with a Bachelor's of Science in Geology, and has enjoyed working with the department as a teaching assistant, rock preparation room supervisor and president of the Geology Club. As a member of St. Norbert's Honors Program and the Phi Kappa Phi honor society, David has enjoyed pursuing academic excellence, in addition to extracurriculars like practicing and performing with the college's Concert Band and Wind Ensemble each year. He would like to thank his family and friends for their support throughout his time at St. Norbert.

Marquise Weatherall is a senior from Madison, WI and he is a Music Performance Major at St. Norbert College. Marquise is currently studying Percussion in the studio of Jim Robl. Marquise is involved in Wind Ensemble, Jazz Ensemble, Bell Choir, Concert Choir, Brass Ensemble and Concert Band. In Concert Band, he plays the Blue Trombone. Outside of his Music Major classes and ensembles, he is involved in many different things on campus! He is a part of SNC Klezmer Ensemble, Black Student Union, a Program Assistant at the Cassandra Voss Center, SNC Tour Guide and he was the Pit director for 2021-2022's SNC's Knight Theatre. He would like to thank his entire family, friends, instructors and the SNC Music Department for being by his side and supporting his awesome performances!

Leah Zimmer is a Senior from West Bend, Wisconsin. She is graduating with a major in Physics and minors in English and Mathematics. She plans to attend graduate school in the fall. Leah has enjoyed playing flute in the SNC music department for 7 semesters and has been a member of both Concert Band and Wind Ensemble. She would like to thank her incredible family for their love and support and for always encouraging her to stay involved with music.
